Mr. S. H. & H. Chapmann.

Dear Sirs.

Allow me to write to you an account of a coin collection, which was left to my sister by death of her uncle Mr. Wm. M. Winkler of Columbus Ind. – Since two years we are trying to sell that collection but without success. Some time ago I wrote to Mr. Adolf Hess of Frankfurt a.M. in Germany, but that gentleman did have no use for the collection. Mr. Hess adviced me to write to you, that I do now today; also I send this Catalogue to you, so you might find out, whether you will have use for that Collection or not, and what money it is worth. When my uncle was still living he asked $. 4000, now we know, that we wont get that much, we would be satisfied, if we get $2500. You will see, how much the collection is worth, and how much you would offer. Hoping to hear from you

I remain

Yours respectfully

Fritz Kolde.
